SUPREME COURT OF INDIA
(ADVOCATES-ON-RECORD EXAMINATION – DECEMBER 2026)

F. No. AOR Exam. /Dec./2026
New Delhi, 25th September, 2026

NOTIFICATION

1. Under Rules 5 (i) and (ii) of Order IV, Supreme Court Rules, 2013 and Regulation 2 of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record (AOR) Examination made thereunder governing the examination for Advocates-on-Record, it is hereby notified for the information of all concerned that as per the directions of the Competent Authority, the next AOR Examination shall be held at New Delhi on 19th, 20th, 22nd and 23rd December, 2026, only for those candidates who are eligible to re-appear under either Regulation 11(i) or 11(ii) of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record Examination, arising out of the result of Advocates-on-Record Examination – June, 2025, as well as earlier examinations.

2 The candidates who are eligible to re-appear under Regulation 11(i) or 11(ii) of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record Examination are informed that although they have the permission to appear in the subsequent examination in one paper only, this would be at their option, and such candidates may, if they so choose, be entitled to appear in the entire examination afresh. The option will have to be finally exercised by the candidates at the time of submitting the proforma application for the subsequent examination, and the same shall be final and binding on the candidates.

3. Duly filled in applications may be submitted in the AOR Examination Cell i.e., Room No. 308, 3rd Floor, B-Block, Administrative Buildings Complex, Supreme Court of India, New Delhi-110001 during office hours from 01st October to 15th October, 2026. For the convenience of the candidates, copy of the Application Form along with Instructions/Guidelines for submission of Application Form, has been appended to this notification as Annexure-'A' (Page nos. 13 and 14). No application shall be accepted after the last date for receipt of applications i.e. 15th October, 2026 after 5.00 p.m.

4. Under Regulation 4(a) of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record Examination, the examination comprises the subjects: (I) Practice & Procedure of the Supreme Court; (II) Drafting - Refer to Notice - I (Page no. 4); (III) Advocacy & Professional Ethics - Refer to Notice - II (Page no. 5); and (IV) Leading Cases - Refer to Notice - III along with list of Leading Cases (Page nos. 7 to 10).

5. Under Regulation 12 of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record Examination, no application/representation for re-evaluation of answer sheets shall be entertained.

Application/representation seeking relief other than in the nature of re-evaluation shall not be entertained beyond a period of 30 days from the date of declaration of the result.

6. In the ensuing examination, those who are given roll numbers and who absent themselves in the examination will be treated as not sufficiently prepared for the examination and will be dealt with under Regulation 5(b) without giving them any further opportunity, and they shall not be permitted to sit in any subsequent examination except for good reason and with the express permission of the Board of Examiners.

> "5(b) If the Committee on the recommendation of the Board of Examiners is of the opinion that a candidate has not sufficiently prepared himself for the examination they may prescribe a time within which he shall not present himself again for examination."

7. Under Regulation 11(iii) of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record Examination, a candidate who fails in all the papers of the examination shall not be permitted to appear in the next examination.

8. The candidates, who do not appear in all the papers and fail in any of the papers in which they have appeared, shall be treated to have failed in all the papers, including the papers they have not appeared.

9. Under Regulation 11(iv) of the Regulations regarding Advocates-on-Record Examination, a candidate shall not be allowed more than five chances to appear in the examination. Appearance, even in any one of the papers, in an examination shall be deemed to be a chance. Those candidates who have already availed five chances are, therefore, not eligible to apply for AOR Examination - December 2026. However, vide Circular F. No. 17/AOR Exam. dated 17.05.2024, the Advocates-on-Record Examination held in December 2021 shall not be reckoned as a chance while counting the five permissible chances. Accordingly, as one-time relaxation, one more chance is permissible to the eligible candidates on the basis of their result in the last examination they appeared at.

10. The Advocates-on-Record Examination – December 2026 shall be conducted through Pen & Paper mode only.

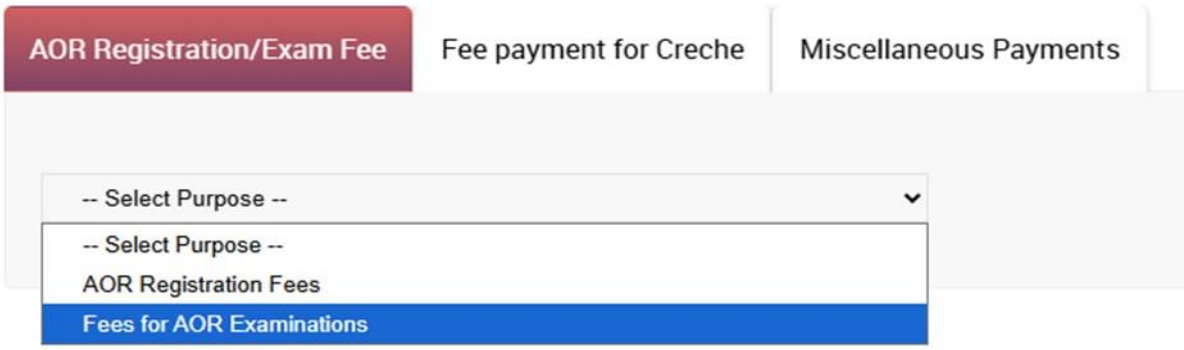
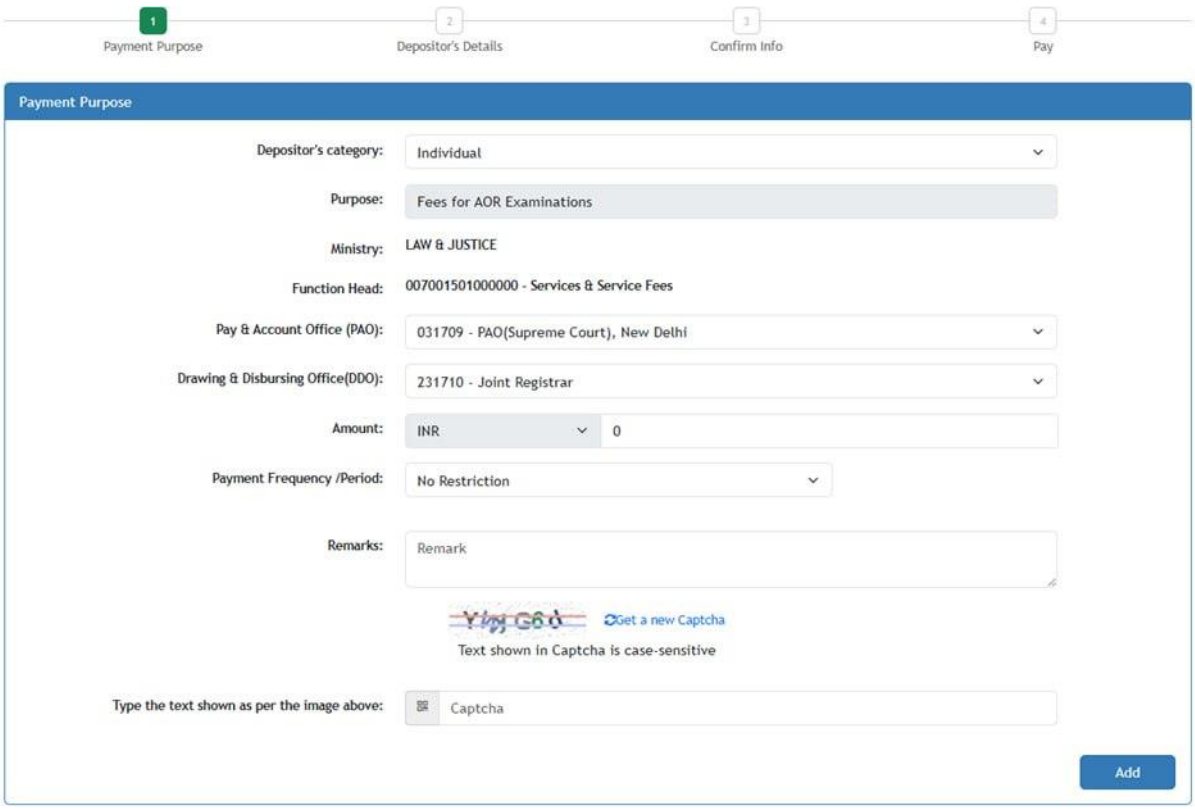
Step-by-Step Procedure for AOR Examination Fee Payment

1. Visit the IOPS portal on the official website of Supreme Court of India, which is accessible through the URL: https://www.sci.gov.in/iops/ with the following Navigation path https://www.sci.gov.in/ -> e-Services -> Integrated Online Payment System.

2. Choose your apporpriate tab for payment i.e., AOR Registration/Exam Fees

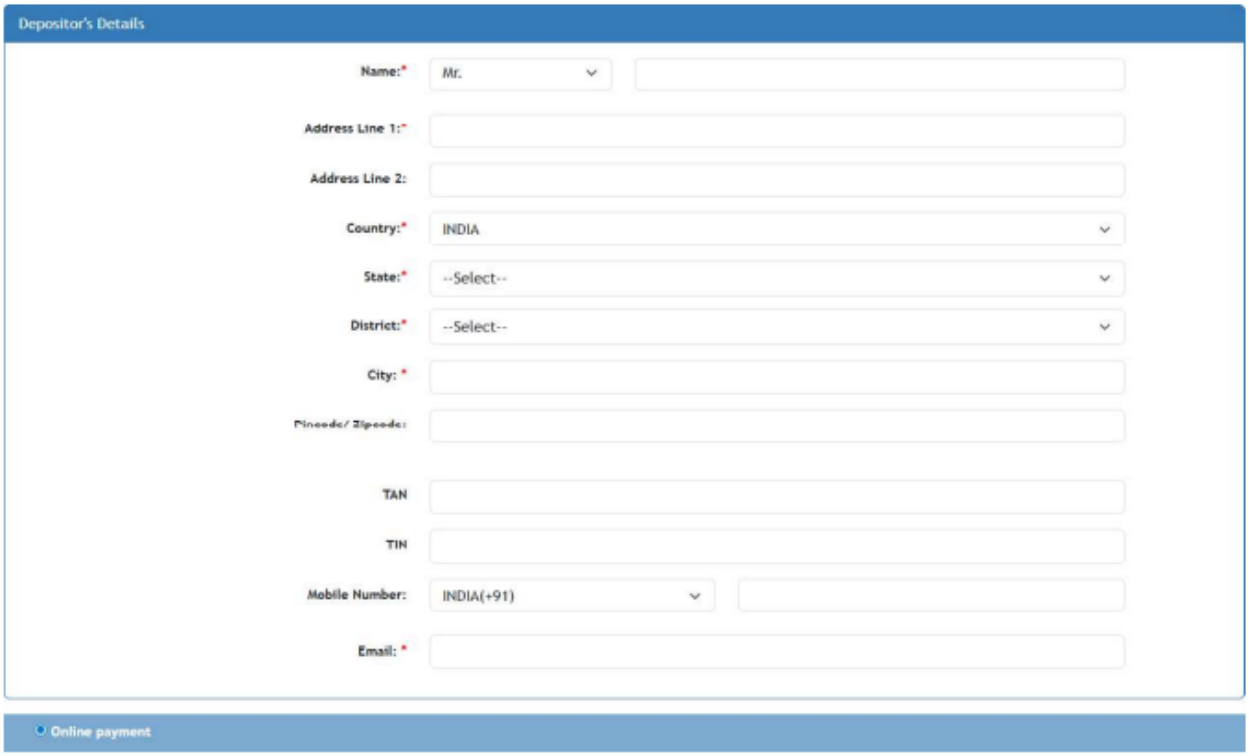


3. Once the desired tab is selected, click on the appropriate purpose from the drop-down menu list.



4. Once selected, the system automatically redirects the user to Bharatkosh payment portal, where the details pertaining to Pay and Accounts Office and concerned Ministry are automatically populated for convenience of stakeholders. The stakeholders need to choose depositor's category (Individual / Corporate / NGO / Ministry / PSU / Autonomous Body) and enter the amount of payment along with remarks and captcha to move forward.

5. In the next step, the depositor needs to enter personal details such as name, address and contact number and e-mail address.



6. Once the details are confirmed, the depositor needs to make final payment by choosing the desired payment method (NEFT/RTGS, etc.) as the case may be.

7. Stakeholders making payment through the portal may also refer to the FAQ https://bharatkosh.gov.in/NTRPHome/Faq and User guide, as published on Bharatkosh website - https://bharatkosh.gov.in/pdf/UserGuideBharatkosh.pdf
